Welcome to La Selva de Mar

Culture

1 Sant Esteve's Church

This Late Gothic church dates back to the 16th century. It was partially demolished at the end of the Spanish Civil War.

2 Sant Sebastià's Church

The original church dates to the 10th century and was fortified against pirates in the 14th century. It has a single nave covered with a barrel vault.

3 El Trull Multi-Use Space

A historic building transformed into a cultural multi-use space with an oil museum, expositions, etc.

4 La Riera Bridges

Stone bridges from the 17th and 18th centuries. The Moli and Corder bridges are amongst the most notable.

5 La Pitja Fountain

This is the most central fountain in town, located between the Fonda Felip and El Celler.

6 Els Lledoners Fountain

This is one of the town's citizens' most beloved sites and was immortalised in one of Tomàs Garcés' verses.

7 Mollor Fountain

Traditional fountain featuring a wide semicircular arch with narrow slabs of slate.

8 The Eiffel Beams

These iron beams by the celebrated engineer are located inside el Trull.

9 Salt del Moli

This waterfall is named after the historic mill that once stood in this site until the 17th century.

10-12 Defensive Towers

The wall surrounded the town and protected it from pirates. Some of its 16th- and 17th-century towers are still preserved.

13 Municipal laundry

The town laundry was built in 1926 and is part of Catalonia's inventory of architectural heritage.

14 Les Escoles Cultural Centre

The old schools were built during the Second Spanish Republic. They are currently a cultural center and restaurant.

15 Dolmen of the Taula dels Lladres

This is a megalithic tomb from the Bronze Age, dating to 3,400 BC, and composed of six slabs that form the structure and a large inclined slab with engravings on the covering towers.

Restaurants and terraces

16 Les Escoles

This former school has been transformed into an entertainment and cultural center and restaurant. There are creative tapas, rice dishes and... the essential patatas braves (fried potatoes with a spicy sauce)! This is ideal for families.
